THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 14 1899

TOO YOUNG TO GET A LICENSE.—A romantic story culminated in Richmond last night, when Marion Lambert, an eighteen-year-old boy, was married to Miss Florence M. Parker, the beautiful daughter of Dr. W. W. Parker, lately deceased. She also is but eighteen years of age. Young Lambert is the son of the late J. W. Lambert, formerly of this city, the founder of the Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., of St. Louis, the only listerine manufactory in the United States. His private income is to be $30,000 a year. Owing to his youth his guardian refused to give his consent to the wedding. He was, therefore, unable to obtain a marriage license in Richmond, and he at first proposed to take the whole party in a private car to Washington. In lieu of this plan, however, he yesterday induced his wife's brother-in-law, G. Carlton Jackson, to qualify in the Chancery Court as his guardian. The new guardian at once gave his consent to the marriage, which was celebrated at the residence of the bride's sister. The couple left last night for Washington, and will go thence to New York and Boston, returning to Richmond, whence they go to St. Louis.

Miss Annie F. Gunning, Tyne, Mich., says: "I suffered a long time from dyspepsia, indigestion and became very weak. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure completely cured me." It digests what you eat and cures all forms of stomach trouble. It never fails to give immediate relief in the worst cases.
